510 000 000 HUF

In the picturesque outskirts of Dunabogdány for sale, the property shown in the photos is ideal for catering, event venue, multi-generational home or even for farming, with unparalleled qualities.

Of the 27.106 m² of land in the Natura 2000 protected area, 7.177 m² is registered as a courtyard and farm buildings, while the remaining almost 2 hectares are registered as arable land. The estate offers a natural, yet versatile use with its own lake and woodland.

There are 5 separate residential buildings on the plot, two of which are used as official accommodation, with a licence to accommodate 24 people, which can be extended to 45-50 people on request. The other buildings are currently used as residential and storage, but could easily be converted into accommodation.

In addition to the residential buildings, the property also has a brick-built chicken, pig and goat house, a workshop which can also be used as a garage, a smokehouse, a deep-freeze room and a vaulted cellar.

The area is ideal for multi-generational family living, rural tourism, accommodation, farming and self-sufficient living.
